'Dance Sitting Down'

Hey all-non-groovers! If your best efforts are the sprinkler and the shopping trolley on the dance floor, then you'll love my new single" says Fiona Fields.

Witty and squarely pegged at the boys, Fiona Fields newest single to radio, Dance Sitting Down is all about him and his flat footed dance grooves. "He likes his country music up loud, and he likes to dance sitting down".

DPK Digital Press Kit

Self confessed 'girl next door with big dreams', Fiona Fields is making inroads into Australian country music with Good To Go. Her debut album of up-beat tunes and playful lyrics was released at the 2010 Tamworth Country Music Festival, where she signed up a tribe of loyal FF fans with album sales.

A 2010 Toyota Starmaker Finalist, Fiona has a firm grasp on contemporary country music, writing and co-writing 12 of the original album tracks. Her stock and trade is having spent the last 5 years fronting country rock band, 5 Hour Drive, playing the Tamworth festival pub scene, Western Sydney gigs, towns in between and a dose of Nashville recording experience.

Fiona Fields alias identity is a high school teacher of English and Drama in Western Sydney. Raised in the Western suburbs, a child of singing and dancing, and her father's country music collection, it comes as no surprise that Fiona has not only taken charge of her country music career, she also heads up her school's vocal and dance group.

In 2009, Fiona took a break from fronting the band, concentrating her efforts into the Good To Go recording project with Roger Corbett at The Valley Studio.

"Every step I take makes me hungrier to write more, record more, and perform more. I've had the pleasure of working with some of the leading country musicians in Australia and I can't wait to take it on the road" says Fiona.

Likening her music style to female 'Brad Paisley-ish', Good To Go is no doubt a highly contemporary, country rock, album with a healthy dose of self effacing charm and wit from a very likable new face in country.

Fiona's latest single to radio is 'Dance Sitting Down' is playing on country music radio now.
