New Single To Radio

Go Away Come Back

Since releasing the album I'm A Big Girl Now in 2008, Kel-Anne Brandt has consistently released a swag of songs to radio. The fourth and freshest offering from this versatile singer is, Go Away Come Back a radio friendly tune written with Drew McAlister that delivers plenty of gusto from this pocket rocket entertainer.

The album has been very well received in country music radio and it's true that Kel-Anne is one of those hard working entertainers that seems to find friends and embraced throughout many pockets of the globe.

Go Away Come Back has plenty of witt and fun and is inspired by Kel-Anne's husband, Bernard. With Drew McAlister in the co-writing seat, the pair have struck a universal cord that plenty of girls will relate to. Go Away Come Back is playing on country music radio now.
